

I am writing regarding the price increase to prepaid calling cards.
I know first hand, because my sister is in the military, what a great thing the calling cards have been for Operation Enduring Freedom/Iraqi Freedom. I would like for you to take our military personelle into consideration when you consider increasing the cost of each minute. Thank you